Terms: To place an order I ask for a deposit of 50% of the total for merchandise. The balance is payable after the instrument is completed, before it is shipped. A personal check is acceptable for the deposit. For the balance payment, a personal check is also welcome, but allow enough time for the check to clear before the order is shipped. Otherwise, you can pay by money order, cashier's check or wire funds transfer.

Limited Warranty: All Jensen instruments are warranted against defects in workmanship and materials for a period of one year from the date of delivery. Defects will be repaired or defective items replaced, at the discretion of Jensen Musical Instruments, free of charge within the warranty period. Strings are covered for 90 days. Normal wear and tear, and damage caused by neglect, misuse, user modification, exposure to extreme temperature and humidity, incidental and consequential damages are excluded.

Returns Policy: If you decide to return the instrument outfit within five days of receiving it, you would receive a refund for 85% of the total for merchandise within 30 days after the outfit arrives here. Instruments with customized features including but not limited to special dimensions and color finishes are not returnable for a refund. You would pay return shipping, and be responsible for any damage to the outfit.
